Supported Living in the Community

Independent living is often described as the freedom, choice, dignity and control at home, work and in the community. Independence takes many forms depending on the support needed; Bleep 360 will be there every step of the way.

“There is no one giant step that does it. It's a lot of little steps” Peter A. Cohen

Providing support in the community

We understand where goals and aspirations are desired, it may be a challenge to achieve these alone. Our carefully selected support workers are there assist with achieving goals which include but is not limited to:

- 👤 Looking for a job/ volunteering
- 👤 Shopping, making financial decisions
- 👤 Looking after the home
- 👤 Personal health
- 👤 Travel

Building long term relationships

Our support workers are more than just people to assist with everyday living; they are there to help an individual grow in confidence and belief in themselves by building a strong relationship based on mutual trust and respect. Emotional support is fundamental to stress relief and innate happiness; which is why all our support workers are compassionate and understanding.

Complex Care Packages

Multi Disciplinary Care Provided in the community, in order to promote a sense of independence and autonomy for the individual

We provide complex care packages across the UK to meet a range of needs, particularly focussing upon those with chronic mental health and learning disability needs.

We currently provide care to those diagnosed with:

- Post Traumatic Stress Disorder
- Psychosis
- Emotionally Unstable Personality Disorder
- Schizo-affective Disorder
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Tourettes
- Autism
- Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder
- Learning Disabilities

We can provide a range of care packages, to an individual within appropriate accommodation that we can source for you.

We work with multiple Clinical Commissioning Groups to commission this care and have had success with young people unable to continue living at home and adults requiring intense support upon discharge from lengthy admissions in specialist hospitals

Emergency Placements

Emergency placements can be needed for many reasons, let us help you provide a sense of calm and security in a time of crisis.

Emergency Placements

- Providing flexible solutions quickly
- We offer support when other placements have broken down with immediate/very short notice.
- A range of support available from Support Workers to Qualified Nurses and Specialist Education staff
- We regularly work with children's services to provide support whilst Section 47 assessments are undertaken.
- Our service is ageless
- Care can be delivered with 24 hours notice

Providing Support in the family home

Helping you to stay at home whilst experiencing an emotional or social crisis

We have a range of professionals who are able to provide you the support you need at the time you need it most.

This approach has been proven to be helpful in diverting admissions to Tier 4 services and also in providing an alternative to foster care.

For our adult service users, support at home has been helpful in times of emotional upheaval, such as bereavements, post diagnosis of complex health conditions and in the event of a mental health crisis.

Our Professionals

“They may forgot your name but they’ll never forget how you made them feel”

Testimonials

What our clients say about our services

Testimonials

“I have never seen my son as settled he is now with Bleep 360 Care, I am very proud of the progress my son has made in the last few months”

“The process of moving out of hospital after 7 ½ years was never going to be easy, but with the support of bleep360 staff I have managed to transition pretty smoothly. Its very scary going into the community. Especially when I was admitted as a teenager. But I am proof it is possible to transition back into the community”

“Managerial staff are quick to fix any issues and are always contactable. They listen to me and implemented what we see fit. My package with bleep360 care is very much person centred.”

“ I have never known another service as flexible with what they will deliver, care really is based on the needs of the person, not a pre-designed service package”
